He Liked Starnes
Better in Sweden

CPYRGHT

I READ with great pleasure and appreciation the reporting on Sweden by Richard Starnes. He seems to have more knowledge of Sweden than he does of Viet Nam. Yet he must have spent about the same amount of time in each country.

On his return from Viet Nam he was awfully upset about CIA activities there. His reports were in diatribe style. Well, sir, he continues to criticize our presence there. He, apparently, doesn't believe that we are in Viet Nam to stop further aggression.

Would he let North Viet Nam run over South Viet Nam, thus enlarging the sphere of communist influence?
